Syliane Saadbouzid

Full-stack web developer, automation and AI

PROFILE

Full-stack web developer based in Algiers, working remotely. I build websites, web apps and online shops (TypeScript, Next.js, Python, PostgreSQL) and automate repetitive work with n8n, Power Automate, Python and local AI models (Ollama, llama.cpp). Self-employed; third-year computer science engineering student at USTHB (cybersecurity), with an internship at Alcodefi in web development and data management. Open to remote freelance projects.
